PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb started esterday for Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele will return to 11 East Sixty-second street from Westbury, L. I., January 8.

company of twenty-two at dinner Christ-mas Day at her home in Georgetown.

Sir John and Lady Cadman, who have been visiting in Washington, have re-turned to New York. They will sail for

The British Great War Veterans As-

FIFTY YEARS IN OPERA.

but still active and resourceful assistant stage manager. It was Mr. Viviani's fiftleth anniversary of service as singer and technician on the operatic stage here and abroad. He has been thirty years at the Metropolitan, where as a basso he same for ten years such roles as Mephisto in "Faust."

Mr. Viviani was born in Odesan of Italian parents and made his debut in Italian parents and made his debut in Verdi's now little known "Luisa Miller" in Cremona on December 26, 1871. He later sang at La Scala and in Cairo, and South America before coming here.

During last night's performance at the Party at Sherry's For Big Sisters Attracts Society

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt 2d Gives Supper After the Theater.

the Theater.

There was a round of entertainments yesterday that made the holiday the gayest of the season. The reception held in the afternoon by Mrs. Grenville Parker to introduce her daughter, Miss Marjorle Hughes, at 139 East Thirty-ninth street, was the first large gathering of the day, and there followed several dinners, at theatre party and three large dances, which kept the debutantes busy going on from one to another. The largest dance has night was given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Batterman in the provided by leading theatrical agers. The patrons of last night from theaters, the opera and from ers, and they were seated for supational following the daughter. Miss Beatrice W. Batterman, who is identified with the Locust Valley section during the summer, the country place of her parents being Beaver Brook Farm, in Mill Neck, L. L. Mr. and Mrs. Batterman's guests included not only the young friends of their daughter, but many of their own. The ballroom was hung with holly, evergreens and mistletoe, and while supper was being served in the main restaurant negroes sang plantation melodies and popular songs.

Mrs. H. Casimir de Rham of 960 Park avenue and Tuxedo Park gave a dinner last night at Sherry's to introduce her he restaurant at Sherry's for the second ave been arranged by Mrs. William K. anderbilt. The proceeds will be divided nong Catholic, Jewish and Protestant vill be provided by leading theatrical will be provided by leading theatrical managers. The patrons of last night came from theaters, the opera and from dinners, and they were seated for suppor at individual tables in the restaurant and foyer. The entertainers were Miss Ethel Levey, who sang at 11:30, and Miss Dorothy Clarke and Carl Randall, who danced at midnight.

Among those entertaining friends at supper were Mrs. Vanderbilt, who took ber guests after seeing Mrs. Lydig Hoyt's professional stage debut in The Squaw Man"; Mr. and Mrs. Relawd T. Wilson, Miss Muriel Vanderbilt, who had a party of her young friends; Mr. and Mrs. Louis & C. Clark, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Felds D. Doubleday, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. officiary, Mr. and Mrs. Mortlmer L.

ff, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney J. Colford,
Mr. and Mrs. W. Deering Howe,
and Mrs. Joseph B. Thomas, Mr.
Mrs. Henry H. Rogers and Mr. and Oscar Cooper. There will be two

BERKEHIRE WINTER SPORTS.

Children March and Sing Around ommunity Christmas Tree.

LENOX, Mass., Dec. 26 .- Lenox ther-LENOX, Mass., Dec. 26.—Lenox thermometers this morning registered six legrees below zero, and this has been a perfect Christmas Monday, with the foliday sojourners enjoying winter perfect. Court House Hill and West treet were the favorite places for louble rippers and bob sleds.

The brilliantly lighted community Christmas tree attracted many of the winter colony and townspeople to-night. There was chorus singing. Mr. George D. Turnaire led a procession of 400 enox children about the tree and later listributed cornucopias of candy and

Among those in the company were Mrs. Turnure, their daughters, Mrs. Rudolph C. H. Kissel and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Kirchway Livermore; Mrs. Raymond T. Baker and her sister, Mrs. D. Emerson McVickers; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed, Mrs. Daniel Paine Griswoid, Mr. and Mrs. Cortlandt Field Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Dana and Mr. Willard F. Smith.

a reception to seventy of their Pittsfield friends this afternoon. Mrs. Flournoy was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. Miguel R. Martinez, who recently returned from Spain, and by Mrs. Edward L. Martinez of Boston.

ward L. Martinez of Boston.
Mrs. Albert S. Barker is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs.
Edwin Corning in Albany.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Russell have as guests at Riverbend in Pittsfield her father, Dr. George Henry Fox, and two brothers, Dr. Howard Fox and Mr.
Alanson G. Fox of New York.

MISS ODETTE FEDER WED.

mes Bride of Major McCrindle of British Air Forces.

Miss Odette Feder, daughter of Mr. d Mrs. Joseph Fuller Feder of 973 ifth avenue, was married yesterday ternoon at her parents' home to Major Ronald McCrindle of the British Royal Air Forces, The ceremony was performed y the Rev. Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, the bride being given in marriage by to the Council of Ambassadors in Paris.

TO WED MISS MINCK. Mrs. Franklin J. Minck of Forest

Mrs. Franklin J. Minck of Forest IIIIIs, L. L. has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mac Dorothy Minck, to Mr. Carroll Weller Gates son of Mrs. Charles M. Gates, also of Forest IIIIs. Miss Minck, who is a slater of Mrs. Samuel R. Willes of Forest Hills, was graduated from the Fuller School in Ossinling. Mr. Gates was a Lieutenant in the Aviation Corps of the navy and served overseas two and one-half years.

MISS FISHER IS ENGAGED.

MISS FISHER IS ENGAGED.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H, Fisher of 876
Park avenue, formerly of New Haven.
Conn., announced yesterday the engagement of their daughter. Miss Margarot Crossette Fisher, to Mr. Theodore Babbitt, son of the late Kurnal R. Babbitt and Mrs. Babbitt of this city. Miss Fisher was graduated from the Porter School, Farmington, Conn., and Mr. Babbitt from Yale in 1913. He is now in the Harvard Law School.

FAIRY PLAY FOR CHILDREN.

A series of plays for children and for such grownips as care to renew their youth, to be held during the holidays, began yesterday morning at the Manhattan Opera House under the direction of Daniel E. Hanion. "Little Red Riding Hood" was the first of the three plays to be put on. The children who enjoyed the play most of all were not those in the audience, but a dozen who assisted as fairles in the cast. They appeared to enter into the spirit of things with more grace and enthusiasm than their ders. The play deals with the malice of the wizard, Hobblegobblewitz (William I, Clark), and of Duke Rovensberg (Frederick Harrington), who is, when occasion demands, turned into a wolf by his friend the wizard. On the side of Red Riding Hood is the Prince in discusse (Robert Dunbar), and Amarylia, Queen of the Fairles, played by Miss Marie Gilmer. Dame Dorothy, the grandmother, was Mabel Montgomery. other, was Mabel Montgomery.

TOMORROW (WED.) 11 o'CLOCK

AT THE RODIN STUDIO BLDG. 200 WEST 57TH ST. Cor. 7th Avenue.

The Rich Furnishings of three studies, including Davegports, Easy Chairs, Cabinets, Refec-tory Tables, Bookcases, Desks, Electrollers, fedroom Suites, Hangings, Linens, Domestic and Imported Rugs; Sliver, Music Cabinets, Chifforobes, etc. FOR IMMEDIATE REMOVAL.

15

PARTIES FOR DEBUTANTES GAYEST OF THE SEASON

Receptions, Dinners and Theater Gatherings Followed by Three Dances.

Mrs. H. Casimir de Rham of 960 Park avenue and Tuxedo Park gave a dinner last night at Sherry's to introduce her daughter, Miss siarion E. Je Rham, and it served as a prelude to Mr. and Mrs. Batterman's dance, their daughter being among the guests. The dinner was served at two long tables decorated with crimson poinsettia and holly. The guests included only the young friends of Miss de Rham. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Morehead Patterson, Misses Elizabeth Kountze, Adele Sloane Hammond, Barbara Whitney, Annie Burr Auchincloss, Phyllis and Priscilla Baldwin, Diana Dalziel, Catherine W. Dews, Elizabeth Lee Dodge, Mary Alice Barney, Nina Chatillon, Elizabeth Bleecker Carey, Emily Fordyce Dodge, Clarisse de Rham, Iris Cutting, Josephine J. Dodge, Julia Fincke, Ruth Thayer, Marjorie Taylor, Dorothy Newton Sharp, Gertrude Sanford, Sylvia Goddard, Cornelia and Sara Sage, Dorothy Schiff, Carlotta Havemeyer, Betty Thompson, Katharine Hurd, Laura Harding, Joan Whitney, Geraldine Thompson, Helen Trevor, Evelyn Loew, Elizabeth Mecker Barbars Geraldine Thompson, Helen Trevor, Eve-lyn Loew, Elizabeth Mecker, Barbara Murray, Marie and Frances Norton, Kate de Forest Prentice, Betty Price, Jeanne Reynal, Isabel Rockefeller, Adele and Virginia Ryan and Celestine God-dard.

and Virginia Ryan and Calcalland dard.

Among the young men were Measrs.
Quincy S. Cabet Adams Ashforth, Henry Clews 3d, Thomas Bancroft, E. Mauran Beals, Thomas M. Carneşie, Jr.; Charles J. Coulter, Frederic Cromwell, John C. Borden, Clifford V. Brokaw, Jr.; George H. and Walter L. Carey, James A. Burdan, Jr.; Seymour L. Cromwell, Jr.; Maiter Malter

Maxwell, David Dutton and Richard Frothingham.

Miss Cornella Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, gave a dinner party last night before the Robinson alumnae dance in the Plaza. Her guests were chiefly girls who will not make their debuts in society for a year or two, A dance for girls not yet out will be held Thursday night in the Colony Club, and a similar assembly is to be at the first of the Metropolitan Dances in the Colony Club in the Ritz-Carlton Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Lusk of 535

Miss Marjorie Hughes, introduced at a reception yesterday.

Parish, Rosamond Borland, Florence Lockwood, Eleanor Tyng and Dorothy Moran, and Messrs. Albert H. Ely, Jr., Dexter Hawkins, William T. Lusk, Lea S. Luquer, Richard C. Story, Jr.; Abbot L. Moffat, Leighton and George E. Brewer, Jr., and Frederick Sheffield. Miss Katharine Boston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Boston of 80 East Fifty-sixth street, was introduced to society at a dance last night in the Cosmopolitan Club. 123 East Fortieth street. There were several hundred guests who came to it and went on to the other dances of the night.

Mrs. Frederick Wright Trippe gave a small dinner last night at the Colony Club for her debutante granddaughter, Miss Louise Trippe, among her guests being Misses Leila Baldwin, Kate Darlington, Kathleen Beale Crawford, Messrs. Louden Wainwright, Jabish Hoimes, Jr.; Juan Trippe, Arthur Tuckerman and Edward Lindsley Ayers, Afterward Mrs. Trippe's guests went to some of the dances of the night.

Miss Coster Makes Debut.

To introduce their daughter, Miss Polly Borden, Clifford V. Brokaw, Jr.; George
H. and Walter L. Carey, James A. Burden, Jr.; Seymour L. Cromwell, Jr.;
Barry Ryan, Jr.; Durant Rose, Walter
K. Phelps, Reginald P. Rose, Cornelius
Vanderbilt Whitney, Julius Wadsworth,
Gerald Warburg and Norman S. Walker.

Dinner for Miss Whitney.

Another dinner in advance of Mr. and Mrs. Batterman's dance was given by
Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Maxwell of 15
East Eighty-fourth street for their niece,
Miss Caroline Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Whitney, who is a student at Vassar. The other guests were Misses Mary Steers, Sylvia Conway, Marjorie Hughes and Angeline
Garrison, Midshipman John J. Pierrepont, also Messra. Samuel H. Ordway,
Jr.; Harold Thorne, Donald Bush, Robert Goeller, Frank Adams, Eugene L.
Maxwell, David Dutton and Richard
Frothinsham.

Miss Cornella Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, gave a dinner party last night before the Robinson alumnae dance in the Plaza.
Her guests were chieffy girls who will land mrs. Howard E. Whitney, who is a student at Vassar. The other guests were Misses Bary Steers, Sylvia Conway, Marjorie Hughes and Angeline
Garrison, Midshipman John J. Pierrepont, also Messra. Samuel H. Ordway,
Jr.; Harold Thorne, Donald Bush, Robert Goeller, Frank Adams, Eugene L.
Maxwell, David Dutton and Richard
Frothinsham.

Miss Cornelia Coster, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Livingston dinner for forty, afterward taking their guests to the Liberty Theater for the performance of "The O'Brien Girl."
In the party were the Misses Cornelia
Coster, Mr. adrien Gilford, Cecile Simmonds, Murlei Kang, Emily Keyes, Eilzabeth Woodin, Virginia de Haven, Grace
Cuyler, Betty Cushman, Leona Hurd,
Betty Strong, Ruth Page, Ruth Anderton, Eleanor Peabody, Mary Anderson, Emily Delafield, Betty Chisolm and Katharine White, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wistar
Wood, Francis Pruyn, Arthur Du Bols,
Donald Carse, Park Benjamin, Lawrence
Keyes, Arthur Fiske, Conde Lamb, Henderson, Gustav Stewart, De Courcy Taylow, Arthur Du Bols and Raymond

latter's brother, Mr. Alfred F.

Her guests were chiefly girls who will not make their debuts in society for a year or two. A dance for girls not yet out will be held [Thursday night in the Colony Club, and a similar assembly is to be at the first of the Metropolitan Dances in the Colony Club in the Ritz-Carlton Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Lusk of 535
Park avenue gave a dance in the ball-room of the Colony Club to introduce their daughter. Miss Louise Lusk. In advance of it Mrs. Henry W. de Forest gave a dinner for Miss Lusk at the club, and among her guests were Misses Maud Cabot, Molly de Forest, Eliza

Mr. alla Mrs. Allored F. Seligsberg, united in giving last night a supper and dance for Miss Susan C. Seligman, a niece of Mr. Seligsberg. It was one of the pleasant incidents of the holiday season and there were present for it 300 friends of the families.

Mrs. Grenville Parker's reception was given at her home, 139 East Thirty-ninth street. Receiving with the hostess and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Hughes, were Misses Camilla Livingston, Nina Chatllion, Angeline Garrison, Dorothy Schiff, Marguerite Jurgensen and Katheris brother, Mr. Alfred F. Seligsberg, united in giving last night a supper and dance for Miss Susan C. Seligman, a niece of Mr. Seligsberg. It was one of the pleasant incidents of the holiday season and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it 300 free days on and there were present for it

LEIBER AS MACBETH PLEASES HIS AUDIENCE The Shoreham—James J. Lyons, C. Homer Williams, De Witt Stetten and H. S. Rubena. The Washington—Jules Tracey, Miss Liftlian Broberick, Miss Lucille Jarrott, Engagement at the Lexington. Stars Considering Three Year Proposal of Manager. Fritz Leiber, who has attained to the Constitution of the the Constitution of

Fritz Leiber, who has attained to the who give an annual season in the meengagement at the Lexington Theater There was every aspect of a holiday occasion about the theater, which was crowded by an enthusiastic audience of the admirers which the actor has apparently been able to acquire during his brief career as a star. It is probable, however, that many of them first however, that many of them first however.

the admirers which the actor has apparently been able to acquire during his brief carcer as a star. It is probable, however, that many of them first learned to admire his art while he was associated with Robert Mantell.

Mr. Leiber began his present engagement with a performance of "Macbeth" which aroused the most cordial approval from the audience. The actor, who will be seen in such a number of roles that there will be ample opportunity to do justice to his ambitions and his achievements, is fortunate in having among his associates with Richard Mansfield and other well known American actors. Last night the role of Lady Macbeth fell to her.

her.

Other members of the large company are John Burke, Frank Howard, Louis Leon Hall, Caroline Kohl and Justia Adams. "Hamie!" will be the bill tonight, with "Romeo and Juliet" at the Wednesday matines and on Thursday. "The Taming of the Shrew" on Wednesday night and "Julius Caesar" on Friday.

PARADE AT ATLANTIC CITY. Warm Sunshine Attracts Large

Crowd to the Boardwalk.

Hartman, Mrs. S. F. Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Rigney. The Raleigh—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Rudden, Emil Klein, Augusta Barnett, J. Hayden Smith, W. R. Molyneux, H. C. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. H. Snyder and dignity of those Shakespearean actors considering the offer of the management of a New York theater in which tropolis, last night began his second they have been invited to reproduce all of the greatest successes in, which they have appeared jointly and individually. The provision made is that they

The prices would be reasonable and the order of plays would follow that of their original production.

Mr. Sothern and Miss Marlowe have produced separately and together fifty-three successful plays, a few not successful financially and several one act plays. Twenty-three of the successful plays are classed as masterpieces of dramatic literature. Thirteen are Shakespeare's plays.

No doubt some of Mr. Sothern's earliest plays would be out of date after

No doubt some of Mr. Sothern's earliest plays would be out of date after more than thirty years. Miss Marlowe's excursions into drama apart from the classics have been more recent. If they decide to accept the offer on the plan outlined the undertaking would employ the stars for one hundred and fifty-nine weeks, or four seasons and fitten weeks at the rate of thirty-six weeks each season. The proposal involves a large sum of money which would be guaranteed, it is announced.

VISIT "HANKY PANKY LAND."

All the characters in "Mother Goose, Ali the characters in "Mother Goose," elves fairles, witches—every figure that looms large in children's lives—appeared in "Hanky Panky Land," which opened yesterday afternoon in the Century Roof Theater, Fred Heider as Hanky Panky took his audience of children and attendant grownups through his land, where is Mather Goose's home, Santa Claus's white house, and other pleasant places.

In the beginning it is the night before Christmas, and Hanky Panky spirits away a little girl named Mary. On the way they stop "on top of a willow tree, where a bird is singing as sweet as could be." Special Dispatch to The New York Health.
Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 26.—Fair skies and a warm sun brought to the Boardwalk to-day the Christmas fashion parade, scheduled for yesterday, but postponed on account of the weather. There was a large crowd on the Boardwalk all day.

New York arrivals at the Ambassador to-day include Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. L. Dubrue, Miss R. Giddon, Mrs. A. Crosney, Miss L. Crosney and F. Crosney.

Miss A. Hutten of New York is a Chalfonte arrival.

E. P. Wadsworth and wife of New York spent Christmas at the Strand.

Brooklyn arrivals at the Seaside are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dost and Mary J. Dost.

E. I. Leigh and Mrs. Leigh and G. H.

MRS. LYDIG HOYT PLAYS WITH FAVERSHAM IN 'SQUAW MAN

Young Society Woman's Debut in Spoken Drama Feature of Revival.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dudley Kenna of 9 East Eighty-ninth street will give a dinner to-night. Lee Shubert yesterday afternoon made the youngest generation of theatergoers acquainted with Edwin Milton Royle's most popular plays of a theater period Mrs. Howard Carroll of 11 East Eighty-sixth street will give a dinner January 10. that ended fifteen years ago. William Mr. Charles H. Sabin, Jr., of Will-lamatown, Mass., is passing the holi-days with his mother, Mrs. Dexter Blagtheater of this country. Four other the piece at Wallack's Theater were in the cast vesterday and there were cana-Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew will give a dinner to-morrow night to cele-brate the twentieth aniversary of their

The part of the heroine was acted by a recruit from society, Mrs. Lydig Hoyt,

Mr. and Mrs. William E. S. Griswold and the Misses Ursula, Adela and Eve-lyn Griswold will go to-day to their house in Lenox to remain over New Year's. only Mr. Faversham that counted. His playing of the British aristocrat, who Mrs. George E. Blackwell and Mrs. dwin A. Strong will give luncheons to-ay for their respective daughters, fiss Katharine Blackwell and Miss embraced American institutions alto-Miss is as I as irresistince in its virile swagger, and remains an impersonation of uncommon charm. If only a few of the younger generation had his triumphant gait, could move with his muscular grace and speak with the sincerity which colors nis voice in emotional scenes, it might not be necessary to revive plays instead of presenting the young actors in new Mrs. Norman H. Davis will give a reception this afternoon at 59 East Seventy-ninth street to introduce her daughter. Miss Martha Davis, who is home from Vassar for the holidays. Mrs. Lindsay Fairfax and her children. Miss Grace Fairfax and William Bradford Fairfax, have arrived from Montreal at the St. Regis to remain until they sail for France.

As Romantic as Eyer.

would make the fortune of any play.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. H. Ripley of 15 East Seventy-fourth street are receiving congratulations on the birth of 16 their second daughter last week Friday.

Mr. Ripley was Miss Freda Pearson, a daughter of Mrs. Frederick Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill Prentice will give a dance to-night at the Ritz-Carliton to introduce their second daughter, Mrs. Kate de Forest Prentice. Dinners in advance of the dance will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop W. Aldrich and Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Hamilton Tyng.

Mrs. George Barnett entertained a company of twenty-two at dinner Christ.

Washington.

Washington.

Washington.

Washington.

As Romantic as Ever.

Mr. Faversham's parting from his little son, who has inherited the title he left behind him in England, held the title helf the helf the him in the left behind him in England, held the title helf the stense tense in interest as ever it used to. It received, moreover, the not unusual tribute of tears. Mr. Royle's play is so well made that its emotional scenes exercise most of their old magic. Tectainly the farewell to the boy going back to England impressed deeply the spectators who had never seen it before and made the strangers who wilnessed it for the first time wonder why last of the dance will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Hamilton Tyng.

Washington.

Washington.

Washington.

Washington.

Washington.

Washington.

Washington.

Washington.

Mrs. George Barnett entertained a company of twenty-two at dinner Christ.

It is not of course, to be denied that also be of invaluable and to the play-wright.

It is not, of course, to be denied that the tooth of time has bitten somewhat deeply into the old piece in places. It is in the comic episodes that these signs of wear are most noticeable. J. Malcolm Young, H. Cooper Cliffe, Bürr Mackintosh, bluff and human as the old cowboy, and Riley Hatch were among the men in the company. The four survivors of Mr. Faversham's original east were Emmett Shackelford, Bertram Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Brien of Grand Rapids and formerly of Washing-ton have arrived in Washington and will spend several months with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry were Emmett Shackelford, Bertram Marburgh, William Frederic and Frank

Mrs. Hoyt Shows Nervousness.

manistractory showing of the season so far, managers were more than glade and form many years prominent in South mane of Julia Hoyt, played the young yesterday for Jonkere Belearts to the conference from the Netherlands, and Jonkheer and Minister to Washington, and Senora and Senorita Calderon, tormoraly Bolivian Minister to Washington, and Senora and Senorita Calderon, who have been on a Senorita Calderon, several table of the Calderon who have been on a Senorita Calderon, several t theater and demonstrated their approval of the attainment of her ambition. The performance thus formed one of the Important incidents in society.

During an intermission Mrs. Hoy! received a reporter for THE NRW YORK. Heratlo in her dressing room. To the query: "And this marks your attainment to the one ambition of your life?"

THOMAS DAILY DEAD;

Another maintained in the maintained at 18 Hattery backelors' dance, Vanderbilt Hotel; reward. H. G. TREVOR. 46 East 78th at. Van Volkenburgh; a daughter, Mrs. LOST—Pilamond pin, Saturday, 170 Broadway. Call Rector 2006. Reward. Return white gold diamond ring, lost December 22, between Eliverside Drive and West Broadway. Call THOMAS F. Remaintained in the maintained and the maintained and the maintained in the maintained and the maintained in the maintained and the maintained in the maintained and the maintained

Mrs. J. Nelson Borland, a member of the board of managers of the Florence Crittenton League, has been helping to arrange an auction bridge tourament which will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Clarke Building, at 42 East Fifty-eighth street, to raise funds for the league. One of the prizes is a parterre box for an evening performation are at the Metropolitan Opera. Among those in the Retropolitan Opera. Among those interested with Mrs. Borland are Mrs. Richard Whitney, Mrs. H. Gloster Armstrong, Miss Allee C. Smith, Mrs. Jules S. Bache, Miss Frances de Peyster and Mrs. Graham F. Elandy.

Guery: "And this marks your attainment to the one ambition of your life?" she repiled:
"You are right, but I waited for it perhaps much longer than you think. I have waited for this hour since I was 16 years old. I decided then I would study for the stage, and here I am. Before you ask me any more questions I hope all you in front will not judge me too critically by my work this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon at 3 hope all you in front will not judge me too critically by my work this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon at 3 hope all you in front will not judge me too critically by my work this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon at 3 hope all you in front will not judge me too critically by my work this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon at 3 hope all you in front will not judge me too critically by my work this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous this afternoon or to-night. I was so nervous merely tryouts. I had this in mind all the time. Once I harbored grand oper-atic ambitions, but I soon found that my The British Great War Veterans Asreclation gave its monthly dance last right at the Hotel Pennsylvania, about 300 members and their guests being resent. The proceeds of the dance will go to former British and Canadian soldiers who are in hospitals in and around

New York. Gaston Armstrong, British Consul-General, who is honorary president of the association, attended the dance with a party of friends.

atic ambitions, but I soon found that my voice was not strong enough, and I even gave up thought of the lighter forms of opera or even musical comedy. I shall stick to the spoken drams."

"And the movies. How about them?"

"If the opportunity and the time present themselves I may go into the movies in the future, but merely incidental to the spoken play," replied Mrs. Hoyt.

"It is my intention to make a success where I am and Mr. Faversham and Mr. Royle, the author of the play, have encouraged me in believing that eventually I will arrive."

Mrs. Julian W. Robbins and Mr. Lydig Hoyt, mother and husband of the ac-

During last night's performance at the Metropolitan Mr. Otto H. Kahn, president of the board, and several other members stepped back stage to congratulate Ludivico Viviani, the venerable but still active and resourceful assistant stage manager. It was Mr. Viviani's fittleth anniversary of service as singer and technician on the operatic stage here and abroad. He has been thirty years at the Metropolitan, where as a basso he sans for ten years such roles as Mephisto in "Faust"

Mr. Viviani was born in Odessa of Italian parents and made his debut in Verdi's now little known "Luisa Miller" in Cremona on December 25, 1871. He for L Mills, Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs.

also had served in this city as correspondent for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, a position he held up to the time he went to the Southwest in search of health. don, Mrs. A. Crosney, Miss L. Crosney and F. Crosney.

Miss A. Hutten of New York is a Chelifonte arrival.

E. P. Wadsworth and wife of New York spent Christmas at the Strand.

Brooklyn arrivals at the Strand.

Brooklyn arrivals at the Strand.

Br. J. Leigh and Mrs. Leigh and G. H.
Leigh are among the holiday seekers at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas at the Strand.

Mrs. William E. Corey spent Christmas in the audience were Mrs. Og.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Special Diepatch to Tun New York arrivals and made blis debut in Verdi's now little known. Talies and miller in Cremon on December 25, 1871. He later sang at La Scale and in Cairo, and Sundardiis and made blus debut in Wert. Carence 26, 1871. He later sang at La Scale and in Cairo, and Sundardiis and miller in Cremon on December 25, 1871. He later sang at La Sca

MRS.GEORGE STOUT DIES; WAS ACTIVE IN CHARITY Aided Peekskill Church, Hos-

Mrs. Lydig Hoyt.

sons Saw Attractions.

SAMUEL J. BENNETT DEAD.

Was Well Known as Newspaper

Man in New York.

Mrs. Antoinette Frost Stout, widow of George Stout, died yesterday of heart isease at her home at 102 West Sevn Peekskill and was the daughter of Calvin Frost, prominent attorney. A brother, the late Clarence Frost, was as ociated with Grover Cleveland in his pital and Library.

political career.

Mrs. Stout was active in charitable work both in New York and Peekskill. She donated a parish house to the city of Peekskill and was a director of the Peekskill Hospital and Library. She was treasurer of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, at 334 West Pifty-seventh street, and was a member of the Barnard Club. She leaves a brother, Elihu B. Frost, formerly vice-president of the Electric Eoat Corporation. Funeral services will be to-day at the New York home and again to-morrow at St. Peter's Church in Peekskill.

CALDWELL FUNERAL TO BE HELD TO-DAY Prominent Brooklyn Men Visit the Home.

life visited yesterday the home of Evertorney, who shot and killed himself on the eve of his appoinment as District Attorney by Gov. Miller to succeed Harry E. Lewis, elevated to the Supreme Harry E. Lewis

Among those who called at 1409 Dean street was Supreme Court Justice James C. Cropsey, who made Mr. Caldwell one or his assistants when he became District Attorney in 1912. The funeral services wil be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock, burial taking place to-morrow at Canton, N. Y., where Mr. Caldwell was

The funeral of Onsville C. Coffin, who

The funeral of Onsville C. Coffin, who died of pneumonia at Bayside, L. I., Christmas night, will be held in his home there at 3 o'clock to-imerrow. Mr. Coffin was born in Shapleigh. Mc., in 1843, and at the age of 18 years enlisted in the Twenty-seventh Maine Volunteer Infantry. At the close of the civil war he went to Colorado, where he built the first toll road in the State from Boulder to Black Hawk. He served in the First Colorado Cavalry in a number of Indian campaigns, later embarking in the cattle business near Boulder. After ten years in California Mr. Coffin went to Bayside in 1913, and his wife died there last April. He leaves a son, James G., who is president of S. Osgood Pell & Co., real estate dealers, and a daughter, Miss Bessie Coffin of Bayside. He was a member of Nathaniel Lyons Pest, G. A. R., of Colorado. Funeral services will be conducted by Grand Army veterans. THEATERS IN TWO DAYS Estimated That Million Per-Christmas attendance of recent years

WILLIAM M. ARMSTRONG.

William M. Arnstrong, an assistant cretary of the Gould Coupler Com-ing of 20 East Forty-second street and for many years prominent in South rooklyn politics, died suddenly Sunday unsatisfactory showing of the season so far, managers were more than glad to get the satisfactory turn out they did.

Wearing Apparcia

Was Well Known in Coaching

Days on Long Lebest 1.08T—Platinum lorgnette, from Columbia Heights to Montauk Theater, Brooklyn, or numbia Heights, Brooklyn. Reward. LOST-Sealskin muff, Saturday evening, a Franklin Simon's or Woolworth's, at 401 at, and 5th av.; reward. Phone Plaza 563.

Thomas Daily, known as a tavern keeper since the days when coaches were seen on Long Island, died Christmas night of sarcoma at the home of his sister. Mrs. Louise Baylis, Parx avenue, Babylon, L. I. He was 69 years old, Nearly fifty years ago Mr. Daily established the Conkin Hotel at Havemeyer's Point, Islip. Later he was associated with Petitt's Hotel at Jamaica, a roadhouse known to many wealthy New York families who once drove coaches. Later he became proprietor of his own house, Daily's Hotel, at Washington and Fulton streets, Jamaica, a famous rendezvous for sportsmen.

DIED.

Housman, Adelaide C.
Johnson, Lottle
Kain, Joseph
Kenney, Katharine A.
Le Gallez, James L.
Mandeville, Emma
A.
MacWhennel, Bensie
Odell, Martha
Oxiey, Marta L.
Potter, George F.
Stavens, Frank L.
Stout, Antoinette F.
Van Buskirk, C. D.
Van Volkenburgh, T. i
Vreeland, Evelyn L.
Wigton, Theodora B.
Young, T. Fred Argeline, Andrea Alristrong, W. J. Parry, Elizabeth Beck, Isabella Bixby, James T. Brewer, Ida C. Clement, Robert Connolly, William Drake, Katherine E. Eder, James M. Fowler, Charlotte Fulton, Margaret E. Godneip, Stemund Man in New York.

News has been received here of the death at Tucson, Ariz., Christmas Day of Samuel J. Bennett, once a newspaper nan in New York, St. Louis, Paris and London. He was at one time city editor of The Evening Sun, now The Sun. Mr. Bennett went to Tucson from his home at 95 Twenty-seventh atreet, Elimiurst, to regain his health. Hi swife accompanied him.

Born in this city Mr. Bennett was educated in civil engineering but gave up that profession to become a reporter. As a reporter on the staff of the World he worked in London and Paris. He also had served in this city as correspondent of the world had served in this city as correspondent.

ARDOLINO.—On December 24, Andrea, in his 40th year. Funeral services chapel
Stephen Merritt Burlal and Cremation
Coupany, 161 8th av. corner 18th st.,
Wednesday 2 P. M.
AIMSTIRONG.—Suddenly, on December 23,
1921, William J. Armstrong, in his 5tn year. Funeral services in Greenwood Cemstery chapel, Brooklyn, Wednesday morning, December 28, at 10 o'clock.]
BARRY — Elizabeth. Campbell Funeral
Church, Dway, 60th st. Notice later.

Church, D'way, 66th st. Notice later.

BEC.K.—Suddenly, on Monday, December 26, 1221, at her residence, Hotel Robert Fulton, 228 West 71st st. Isabella Beck. Funeral services will be held at chapel of Greenwood Cemotery, Brooklyn, at 2:30 P. M. on Wednesday, December 28, 1921. Romains may be seen at August Eickelberg's parlors, 654 8th av., between 55th and 50th sis. New York city, until 1 P. M. on Wednesday.

on Wednesday.

BINBY—At his home, 2 Arthur st., Vonkers, N. V. Monday, December 26, 1921, Rev. Dr. James T. Bixby, beloved husband of Clara Webster, in his 79th year. Funeral services at his late home Wednesday, December 28, at 2 P. M. Interment Mount Auburn Gemetery, Cambridge, Mass.

DIED

LEMENT.-Robert, on Sunday of December 25, in his 24th year, Hotel Woodstock, New York, Rutland, Vt., on Wednesday, D 28, at 2:30 o'clock.

OWLER,—At Noroton, Conn., December 26.
Charlotte, widow of George W. Fowler, in her 75th year. Funeral services Timeday, December 29, at 2:30 P. M., at the Presbyterian Church, Noroton, Conn.

FULTON.—On Saturday, December 24, a the residence of her niece, Mrs. Horan Holley Dall, 41 Homsen at, Brooklyn Margaiet Emily Fulton, in her Sith year Funeral services at St. Paul's Church Chinon and Carroll sts., Brooklyn, of Tuesday morning, December 27, at 10:20 quehanna, Pa.

HETHERINGTON.—On Monday, December 26, at the residence of he daughter, Mrs. Robert Sharp Kumke, 357 Jefferson av., Brooklyn, Ann C. Heibertigton, wife of the late Samuel Reed Hetherington of Jerky City, in her 30th year. Funcial and interment private in Jersey City on Wednesday, December 28.

HOUSMAN.—December 26, Adelaide C., widow of Arthur A. Housman, at her residence, Hotel Esplanade, West End av., corner 74th et. Funcial private. Los Angeles papers please copy.

Kindly omit flowers.

KENNEY.—At North Plainfield, N. J., or Sinday, December 23, 1921, Katharine A., beloved wife of David T. Kenney, Funeral from her late home, at 12 Rockview av., on Wednesday, December 28, Solemn requiem mass at 8t, Joseph's Church at 10 A. M. Interment at Holy Redeemer Cemetery, Kindly omit flowers.

MILLER.-Re

W. 70th st., on Tuesday, December 27, at 4 P. M. Funeral service at Peckskill, N. Y., St. Peter's Church, 1:30 P. M. Wednesday, December 28, 1921.

VAN BUSKIRK,—Sunday, December 1, 1921, after a short illness, Cornelius T. Van Buskirk, Funeral services at his late residence, 76 Tonnels av, Jersey Cily Heights, Tuesday evening, December 27, S. o'clock, Interment Bergenfield, N. J. VAN VOLKENBURGH.—Suddenly, in his 79th year, at his residence, 46 West 50th st., Thomas Sedwick, husband of Florence Bair Van Volkenburgh and son of the late Fhilip Van Volkenburgh and son of the late Fhilip Van Volkenburgh son of funeral later.

VIEEEAND.—Suddenly, at Montclair, N. J., December 25, 1921, Mrs. Evelyn L. Vreiland, formerly of Boston, Mass., in her oph year, Interment at Mount Auburn Cambridge, Mass., at convenience of family.

its.

ViGTON.—In New York city on Sunday, December 25, 1921, Theodora Beali, daughter of Anna McCown Wigton. Services at residence of her brother, C. Benson Wigton, 72! Watchung av., Plainfield, N. J., on Wednesday, December 25, at 11 A. M. Interment in Philadelphia. OUNG.—On Sunday, December 25, T. Fred Young, Services Tuesday, December 27, 8 P. M., at his laie residence, Hollywood Golf Club, Deal, N. J.

IN MEMORIAM.

TYNAN.—Carolyn Whyte. In loving memory of Babe, who passed away on December 27, 1918.

UNDERTAKERS.

Telephone Chelsea 4000

any time up to 10 P. M. and Worth 10,000 from 10 P. M. until midnight to insert notices of Marriages Confirmations Memorials Annulments Engagements for publication in the next day's issue of

THE NEW YORK HERALD

Lodges Deaths